Vice Admiral Bobby R. Inman
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Inman:

Confirming our earlier conversation, I am hopeful that it will be possible to arrange an unclassified CIA briefing for approximately 125 members of my Sixth District Congressional Advisory Committee, as part of our Second Annual Washington Seminar on Friday, June 11th.

Although the remainder of the day has not yet been finalized, we are now making arrangements for a chartered plane to bring them to Washington that morning when we will have them met by chartered buses which could take them directly to the CIA. We anticipate that this would be around 9:30 or 10:00 AM, although specific times and the bus company have yet to be determined. Our luncheon is tentatively planned for 12:00 noon at the Capitol Hill Club, followed by meetings with Administration spokesmen in the afternoon. We end the day with a wine and cheese reception; they return to National Airport and board the chartered plane, returning to Chicago around 8:00 PM.

Our Advisory Council consists of businessmen, lawyers, medical professionals and educators from the Chicago area and is an outstanding collection of individuals who are highly supportive of the Reagan Administration.

I sincerely hope that we will be able to work out a briefing as we discussed, and while I realize it is not normally a function that the CIA would undertake, this is something that, in my opinion, is well worth doing. If there is any additional information that I can provide, please don't hesitate to contact me.

With best personal regards,

Very truly yours,

Henry J. Hyde
